This is Blue Flame. He is my fire monster.
He's got blue hair and a blue body. He has little arms and little legs.

He's got big happy eyes and a small happy mouth.

His menu:

on Monday: red sparkles

on Tuesday: orange sparkles

on Wednesday: blue sparkles

on Thursday: red, orange and blue sparkles

on Friday: black coal

on Saturday: brown coal and on Sunday: all this together

He is clever and he wins TV quizzes. He likes trees and tea.

He lives in a palace. His family keeps together.

His brothers and sisters are friends for him.

My dream house

by Matěj Krudenc

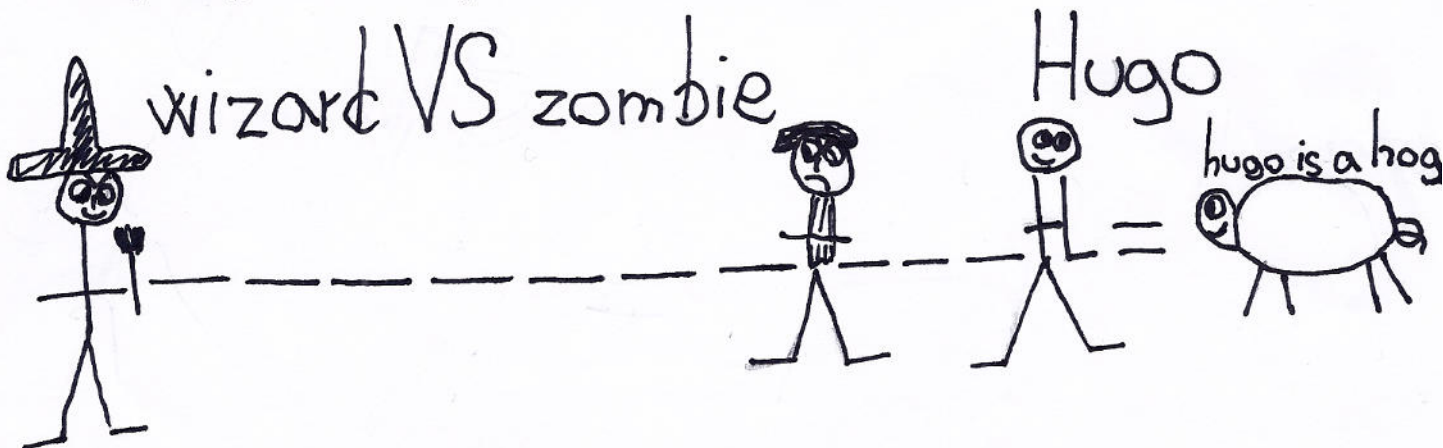

In my dream house there are 1093 rooms.

There is a chocolate room, 7 video games rooms, 10 tennis courts and 46 cinemas. 20 of them are 3D, 10 are 2D, 10 cinemas are 4D and one is 5D. There are lots of other rooms.

HUGO

by Matěj Krudenc and Tomáš Šílený

Hugo is a hunter. He hates animals. He likes killing them. One day he goes to the forest. There he sees a wizard fighting with zombies, but the wizard misses one zombie and hits Hugo with a fire ball. Hugo turns into a hog. After one year, another hunter kills him. The next day Hugo is alive again. He never kills animals.

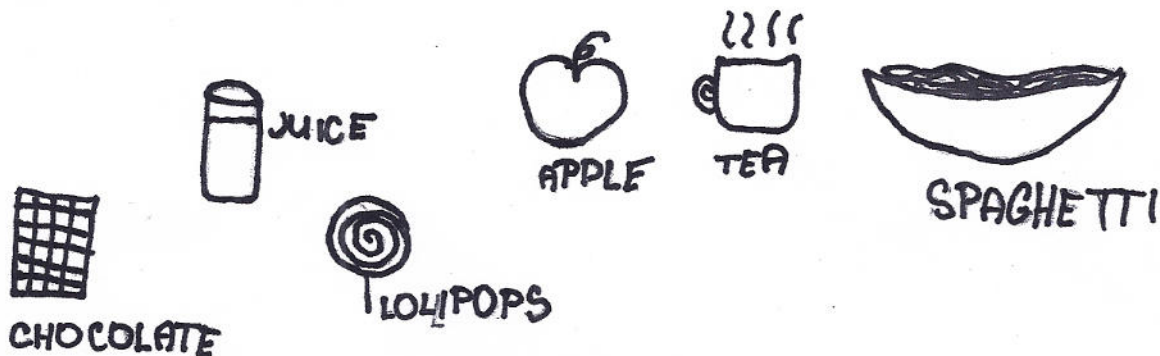

My favourite food

by Amélka Štěpánková

I like food. Is it very good. My favourite food is spaghetti, almost any kind. I like chocolate, lollipops and sweets. My favourite drink is water, Coke, Kofola and juice. I don't like sausages. I like kiwi, cucumbers, tomatoes and watermelons.

For breakfast I have tea or water and always something sweet. I like lunch. Every day I have something else. I have pasta for dinner. Yum! After dinner I have a kiwi, an apple or a watermelon.

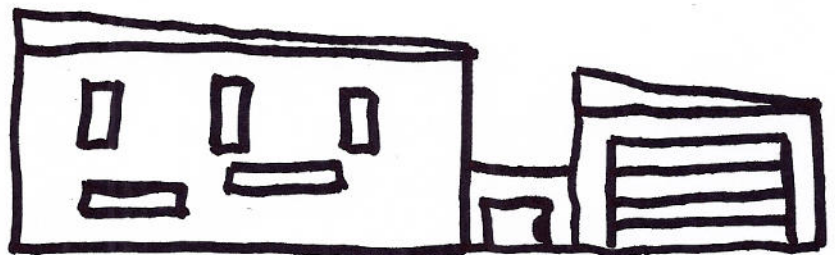

My house

by Karolína Žáková

I live in a house with a big garden. On the ground floor, there is a living room together with the kitchen, an office, a garage, a hall, a bathroom, a cloakroom and a technical room. From the living room there is a door to the garden. In the garden, there is lake for swimming, a barbecue house, lots of plants, two climbers, a terrace and a big sandpit.

On the first floor, there is my room, my sister's room, mum and dad's room, a bathroom, a cloakroom, a toilet and a terrace.

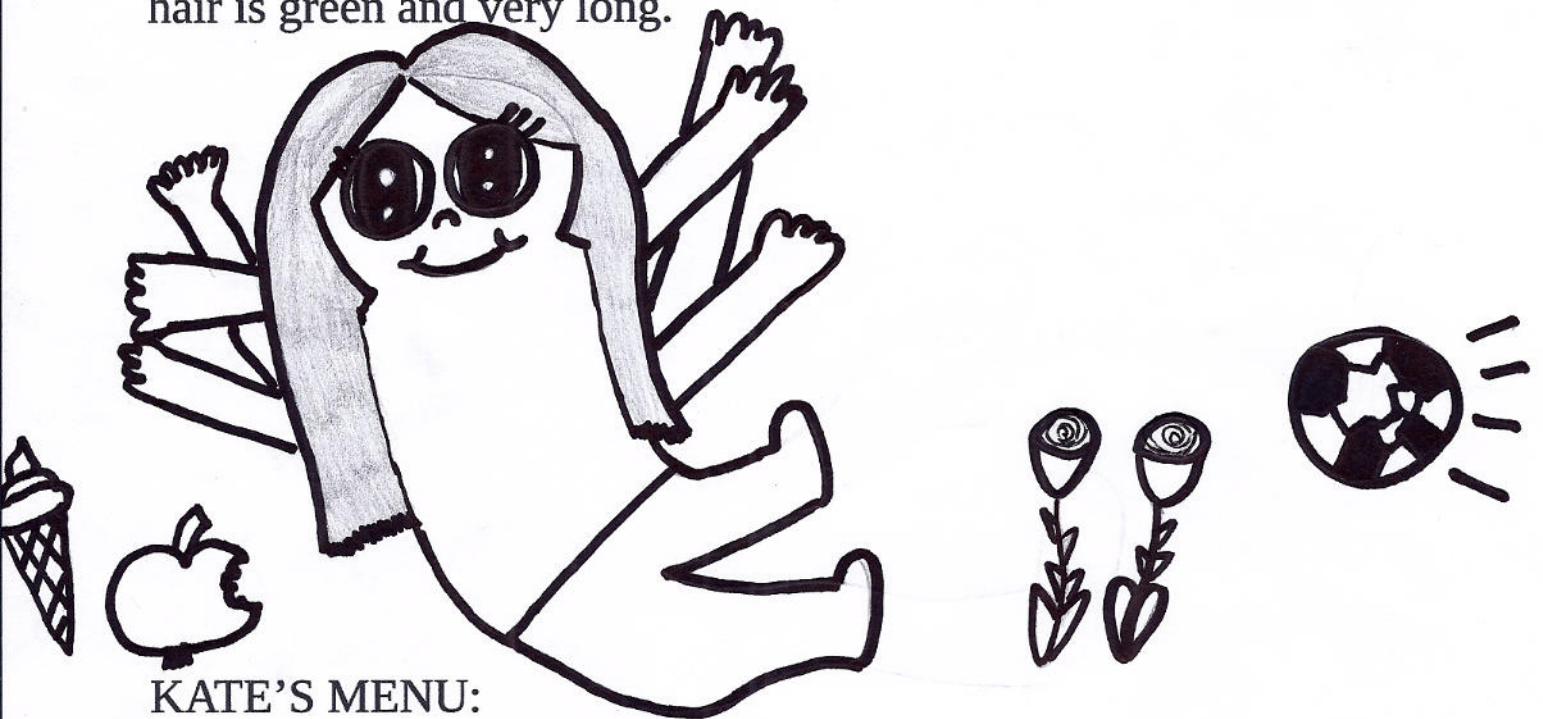

My house is grey and white. From outside it appears as a big cube.

My monsterrrr

by Kačka Dušátková

This is Kate. Kate eats lots of apples. She has got six arms and two legs. She has got twenty-five toes.

Her head is big and blue. She has big black and white eyes. Kate's favourite sport is football. Kate is a little monster. Her favourite flower is rose. Kate lives in a very big tree. She likes ice-cream. Her hair is green and very long.

KATE'S MENU:

On Monday Kate eats ten apples.

On Tuesday she has twenty ice-creams.

On Wednesday she eats one hundred oranges.

On Thursday Kate eats one big ice-cream.

On Friday she has an ice-cream and two apples.

On Saturday and Sunday she eats one hundred ice-creams and two hundred apples.

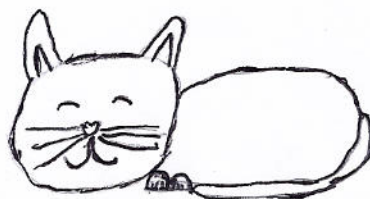

Then she has stomach ache.

STEVE THE COWARD

by Vojta Cvrček

Steve was an adult but he was afraid of dogs. When he was on his way home, he saw a little dog. The dog followed him so Steve went to a magic shop. The shopkeeper was an old woman. She was a fortune teller. The fortune teller gave him a coin. She said: "It will help you." Steve went out of the magic shop. He saw the dog again. When the dog ran to Steve, he showed him the coin with a smile. The dog slowed down and stopped. Then the dog ran away. Steve was happy. He bought an ice cream. But he gave the ice cream man his magic coin. The dog came again. Steve dropped his ice cream and the dog licked it.

Terrible noise

by Vojta Cvrček

One day a group of three friends rode back home from school. One of them crashed into a tree in a field. His name was Jack. Joe and Morgan went to help him.

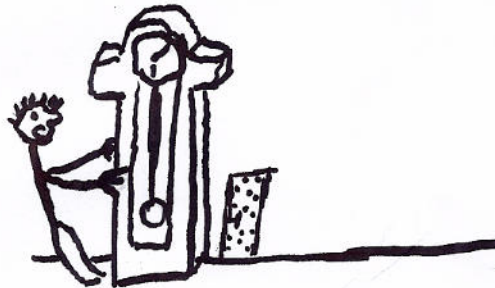

The same day at night they heard a terrible noise from the field. They ran there quickly. There they saw some pieces of metal and glass and a big crater. Black smoke was coming out of it. They saw something like a gun or galactic engine. Joe grabbed that thing, aimed it at a tree and started to shoot. The gun shot out some green plasma and destroyed the tree very quickly. But after that they saw a green human who looked like an alien so they ran to the near forest. That day the people from their town heard a terrible noise. Nobody saw Joe, Jack and Morgan again - their parents, family, no one...

Behind the clock
by Tony Cullen

One day behind the clock there was a big and long tunnel. The clock was in the cellar. Jame was sleeping and his parents were at a meeting in the local gallery. Jame heard some steps so he went down to kitchen. From the cellar, Jame heard some footsteps. He went there and shouted: "Is there anybody?" Nothing. Jame went back to bed end he fell asleep.

In the morning his parents came back from the meeting. Jame didn't tell them anything. In the afternoon he went to the cellar and saw a big clock. He moved the clock left and then he saw a tunnel. Jame went into the tunnel and saw there a boat. A huge boat. He went into the boat. It was a very old ship. At the back there were boxes full of gold. Jame was very happy and he said it to his parents. He went to the tunnel with them. When the parents saw the gold, they took a little fishing boat and they took the gold with them. They were very rich and they bought a new car and a house and they were happy.

Mysterious creatures on my shoulder

by Matěj Vaněk

On day in a forest, I went for a walk with the dog. Suddenly I found a journey into the unknown. When I was going home, I found out that something was following me. Every time I turned around, it was not there. Suddenly, I felt some gray matter on my shoulder. I did not know what it was. So I was saying in my head if it could talk... I tried to speak English but it did not understand. So I spoke Czech to it. The think understood! It began to talk to me. So I asked who it was. It told me that it was SMURF.

The world of tanks

by Matěj Vaněk

Far, far away, beyond seven rivers, lived one little boy who always played World of Tanks Blitz. He was so involved in it that when he went to sleep, he found out that he was still in that game, in a German base. Then the platoon commander came to him and said: "Quickly pick a tank!" So he chose Tiger 3 and went into a battle for the Germans. They won the battle. Fortunately, it ended well and he woke up at home.

UFO 80

by David Hruška & Anna Stejskalová

One day Geogre and Justina were going home from school when they saw a UFO.

They were a little bit frozen. The aliens went into the Grand Canyon because there was their base.

But Justina and George went to the police station and reported that there were some aliens. George and Justina thought the aliens were like this: small, green, they had big heads and small eyes, six fingers. The biggest of everything were their ears. They were from Pluto.

But the police didn't listen to their story about the aliens. So Geogre and Justina were ANGRY.

How to get rid of aliens
by Vojta Wolf

One day at school children were learning Biology. Suddenly Mr Parker goes to the toilet. The children go to the toilet too and they spy on him. Mr Parker starts taking off his skin. But this is not the end... the children look out of the toilet window and see there a UFO.

The children run back to the classroom and opposite them is Mr Parker sitting behind his desk. Mr Parker sitting behind his desk? WHAT?

The bell rings, another lesson starts and the children ask if they can go to the toilet. Mr Parker allows them and the children run to the toilet. They see there Mr Parker coming out of the toilet. The children say to themselves: "What if Mr Parker in the classroom is a holographic figure?" Then they see him push a laser gun into his pocket. The children get scared. What if everybody are aliens? What are we going to do? The children think hard and suddenly somebody has an idea: they are going to show that they are aliens.

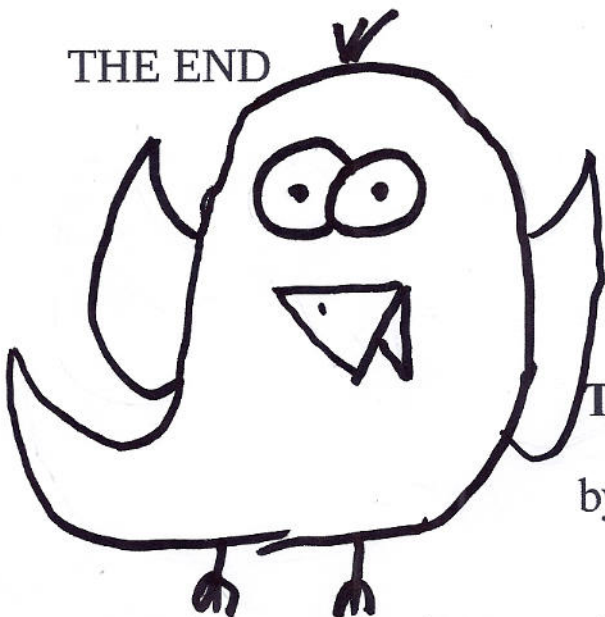

The children succeed. In the UFO they find a changing machine, take it to school and change back their classmates and one adult as well. Then they go to the UFO and sneeze there loudly so that the aliens come back. The aliens get scared of viruses and fly back home quickly.

MURDER ON THE SQUARE

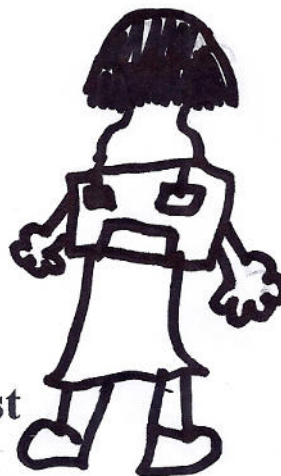

by Anička Stejskalová

One day on 5th of October 1959 a girl was murdered. Her name was Lillian Space. When she was murdered, she was 8 years old. She was murdered like this: she went home from school; the school was next to a square. Her friends went to the Chinese shop so she went home on her own. But suddenly she thought there was a stalker following her, and there was. Before she knew it, he caught her and...

The angry ghost
by Viky and Petra

One night Katka slept on a farm, and there was a ghost of a chicken. The ghost looked like a gay because he was a man (the ghost was scary like a gay). Katka said she didn't like homosexuals, she liked boys.

Katka was stubborn and she hit him on his head with a pan. But she missed. Now the ghost was very angry. He didn't like girls and he killed her.

Jason's story

by Tereza Velínská

The boy called Jason was quite normal. But he didn't have any friends. Nobody noticed him. He didn't say his opinions because nobody asked for them.

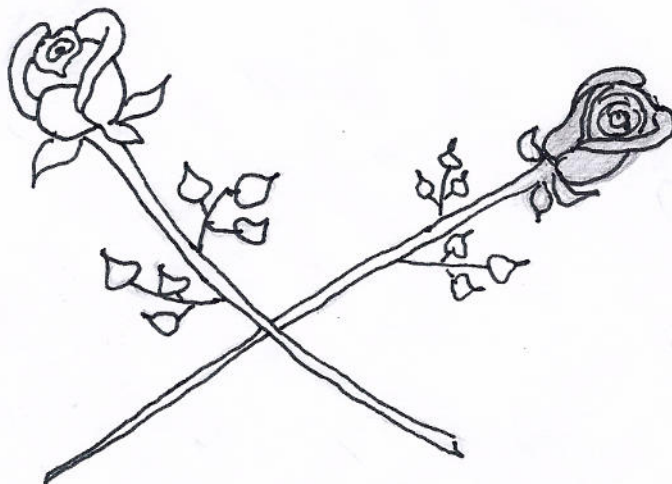

One day he had an idea. He started wearing better clothes. He judged people by their visage and offended them. He was a bad person and he thought only of himself, but the same bad people liked him and he had a really good feeling. Finally... he was Someone and he had 'friends'.

Then, 6 years later, something bad happened in his life and he understood he was a bad person. So he started to be better and help people. Suddenly, he was here again as a better person, but again he didn't have any friends.

He liked one girl called Jessica. He decided to tell her about his feelings for her. One day he went to her and said: "I love you!". She didn't say anything. Then, 2 minutes later, she said: "I want 23 days for my decision..." Jason said: "In 23 days we will meet in the park." Jason went home and thought about Jessica's decision.

23 days were away and Jason went to the park with two roses in his hands. The first rose was white for "Yes" and the second rose was red for "No". He sat on a bench in the park and waited. Jason sat there for 13 hours... Jessica didn't come. He was sad. He threw the roses away and went home. He understood he wasn't nice to Jessica 6 years earlier. Since then he has been trying to help people who need it and be nice to them.

This is the end! 😊

The lost monkey

Authors: Caroline Lovětínská & Tereza Velinská

One man had a monkey Tom. Tom lived in a small cage in the man's house. He never went out... he was only in the cage and man beated him. The man had a small daughter, Jenny. She was very sad because she liked Tom and she felt sorry for him. One day she went to Tom and she saw he was sad. Every day she thought about it... Suddenly, she had an idea. At night she went to Tom, opened the cage and said: "Go... go somewhere far!" Tom went to Jenny and hugged her and ran away. Suddenly he was in the street and he didn't have a home. He was just roaming around the houses and suddenly he heard some sounds and he saw some light in a window... and in that window was a man with... some animal? The door was closed so he lay in front of the door. He fell asleep. In the morning he woke up in a nice bed and he looked around himself. He saw that animal. It was a monkey too. Her name was Aria. Tom and Aria went to the living room and there was the man. He said: "Hello my name is Olly and I found you in front of my door. If you want and if you're alone... you can stay with me and Aria." Tom was so happy that he hugged Olly.

2 years later

Tom lives with Olly and Aria. They are happy. And Aria and Tom are together and they have 3 little monkeys. And Jenny? She sometimes comes to see Tom. Tom is finally happy because Olly is a good man.

Somebody knows everything

by Caroline Lovětínská

It was a normal Monday and I was on my way to school with my good friends Emily, Annie, Jessica and Ashley. Ashley was our “leader“. She had lots of secrets. She knew how to manipulate people to do what she wanted but we still liked her... or ... were just scared?

One day we were in her house talking about some things and trying our clothes on. But... “What’s that?” said Ashley. She saw someone outside... it was a man. He was on the tree and stalking us. When he saw that we were looking at him, he ran away. She thought it was her neighbour Jack so she said we must go and teach him a lesson. He was in their garage. Ashley took out the firework and threw it into the garage. But suddenly we saw fire. The garage started burning. We were scared so we ran away. When we were safely far, we were watching what was going on. Suddenly we saw Jack. He was running away. The police and the fireman arrived. They said it was an accident. But when we were watching what was happening, someone sent us a message: “The firework didn’t look like an accident”. Someone knew that. And he was sending us a threat. And he knew everything.

Psssst!

by Patrik Oehm

Vojta was a real weirdo. One day Vojta had a green hand. He was very scared. He ran home to his mum and said: "mum, look, I have a green hand!" But his mum said this was normal.

One day, after a long time, Vojta saw that half of his body was green. His mum and dad said: "We must tell you something. We aren't normal people, we are Aliens." For Vojta it was a shock. His parents said: "You must be very careful!"

You can imagine how that moment changed all my life. Oh, I forgot to tell you: Vojta is me.

But psssst! Don't tell anyone.

Space adventure

By Patrik Oehm

In future there will be a lot of danger. So a team was built on a space mission. In this team were captain Jetsen and engineer John Black, a computer technician Jack Peterson and some more people. This time the team went close to a black hole. But the black hole was very close to the Earth so the team had to fly very fast.

Jetsen now started the ship and went towards the black hole. The machine for closing the black hole was damaged. Jetsen had to go to space very close to the black hole. He had to repair the machine manually. He did it and the black hole closed. This was a happy end.

The human in black.

by Teodor Sticzay & Martin Pekárek

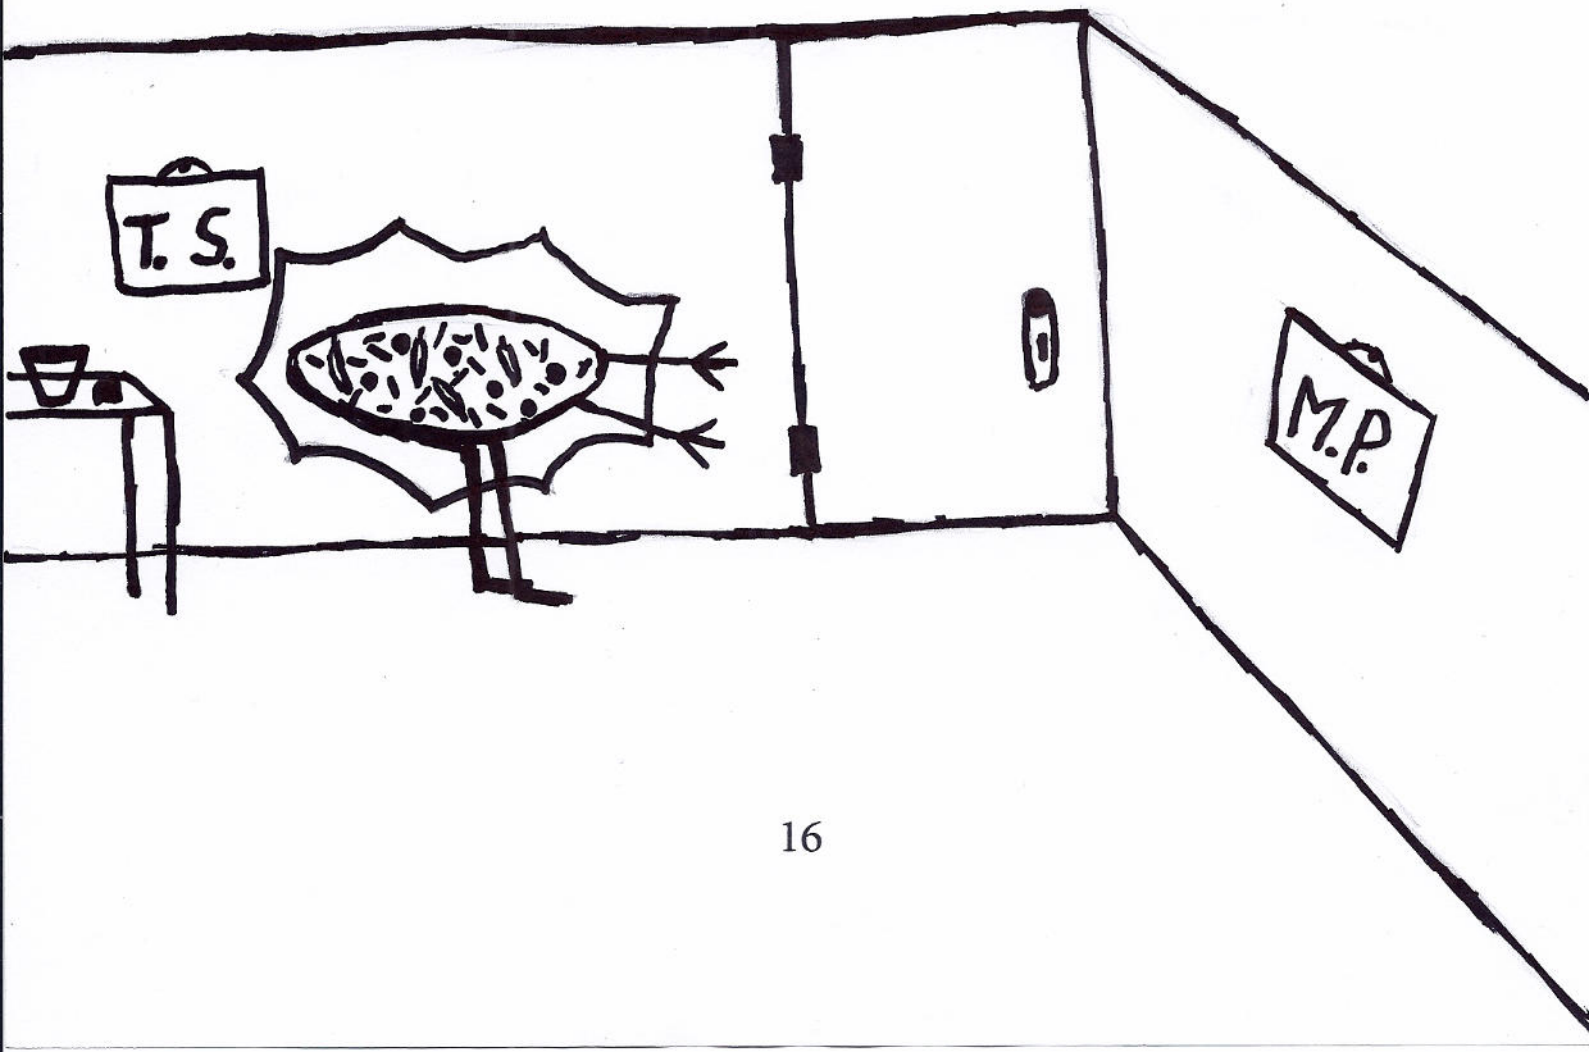

One day she went home. She went cooking pizza with olives and cheese. Suddenly she found out she didn't have any olives. She went out but she didn't know where to buy olives. There was a small market on the other end of the street. Finally, she found some olives. There was a bad gypsy. The gypsy said 45p plus a caution that the olives were magic. She finally took the olives home and put them on the pizza.

The pizza started to shine green and fly. The Pizza opened the door and flew out. She ran out and wanted to catch her pizza, but the pizza was faster.

After a long time, she caught it. She ate it, it was very good.

She turned black. Luckily, nothing else happened.

One day I got up late. I never get up late. I thought: "That will be a bad day." And I was right. I ran out of my house with bread in one hand and a cup of tea in the other. At school I put the cup in a locker. But I did not notice that there was some tea in the cup. So I made my new jacket dirty. I was very angry with myself. In class I was very scatterbrained because I was thinking about my jacket. So I did not hear my teacher and I got a bad mark. In the evening I was very happy that I was in my soft bed. :-O

What's happening?

by Marek Růžička

It was a normal Saturday morning. I woke up at 10.30 because I was at a party and I wasn't feeling good. Mum said: "Darling, your breakfast is ready," and I said: "Yes, mum, I'm coming." It takes me 10 minutes to get to the kitchen. For breakfast I had eggs with bread and a cup of tea. I went to my room but saw something in the garden. I went there but there was nothing. I think I had hallucinations. Later, when I was crossing a bridge, I saw a ghost. It was speaking to me. Suddenly, it disappeared. I was terribly shocked. The ghost was called Pagan Min.

Me and my future career

by Lukáš Jirsa

I think I've got good body intelligence because my reflexes are good. I'm good at catching goals, for example, and I love sports. My favourite subjects at school are History and Geography. I enjoy learning about ancient Greece, and I love history of the States. So perhaps I've got interpersonal intelligence too. I'm not very good at languages, because I'm very lazy to learn new words and to understand the grammar. But I've got good marks in tests.

When I finish school, I'd like to be a hotel manager. I think this job is very interesting. I like talking to other people. But in this job you need languages so I must learn them. I want to be a cook too, but my mum tells me I'm not fast enough. I'd like to have slow, relaxed work.

Dark hole

by Matyáš Pavlík

One day Karlík got up normally at 11:00 and he got in his car Suzuki Swift Sport. He drove to work but there wasn't work, there was a BIG BLACK HOLE.

He got out from his Suzuki Swift Sport and he went to the supermarket opposite that HOLE. He bought some salami, sausages, a chair, a tree, some weed and an awesome lamp. After that, he put the lamp on the ground and he started to roast the sausages on the lamp. He ate them with the salami. Then he went to the HOLE and he threw the chair into it. He was waiting. After that he saw it: it was nothing. He threw the tree into the HOLE, but he missed. Because he was angry, he started to dance in his weed. After his weed dance he jumped into the HOLE.

He was falling and falling, twice he met some people who were falling in the opposite direction. He said to them: 'Hello,' but they didn't answer. So he was falling and falling but he didn't see the bottom of the HOLE. Suddenly he hit the ground. He closed his eyes but it didn't hurt. So he opened them. There was a land full of rainbows and pinky horses. He sat on his chair looking at it.

After hours of nothing he fell asleep. In his dream there was a pyramid and a red dog. He looked at this dog and the dog said: 'I know what you must do.' And Karlík said: 'What is it?' The dog answered: 'You must buy some food for me!!' Karlík woke up and his dog was sitting on him. He was barking. Around him there was some weed, a new lamp, a tree, two sausages and a piece of salami.

Forgetful mind

by Tereza Mouchová

Today, when I was leaving the house, I remembered that I promised that I was going to bring some food to a party. But the party was from five o'clock and I had school to quarter to five! It was bad. So I had to get it before school. I was going to buy some sweets. What a good idea ;-).

So I bought some sweets and I went to school. But my bus had arrived earlier than I reached the bus stop. Pity. I arrived at school two hours after the school had started. And I forgot that we were writing a test. A hard test from Physics. My teacher was angry with me. I arrived at school late and I got a bad mark from the test.

THE SWEETEST HOUSE

by Julča Soukeníková & Terka Mouchová

We are twins. We are 17 years old. We live in California, but we are moving to Miami, because our great grandmother left us her 'luxurious' villa. We have seen it.

But one day our parents had a bad accident. They died : 0 Pity... So we had to move to this villa, because we didn't have any money for the rent.

We settled down here and we fell in love with this place. But... one beautiful night we saw a ghost which was emerging from our toilet.

We said: 'Go away'

Ghost: 'No'

We: 'Go away'

Ghost: 'No'

We: 'Go away'

Ghost: 'No'

We: 'Go away'

Ghost: 'OK'

We: 'Alright'

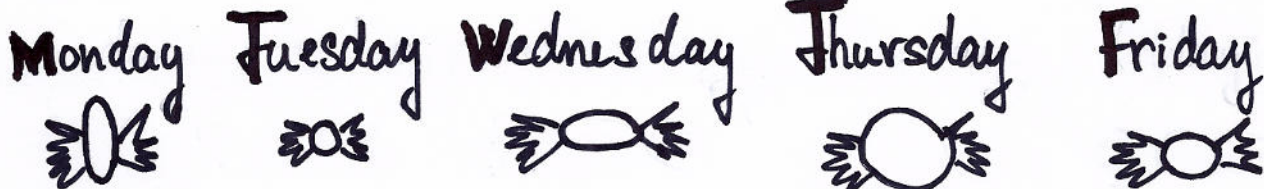

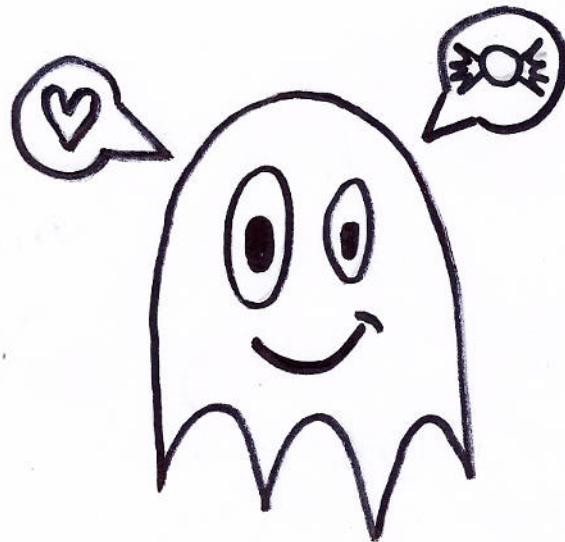

Ghost: 'No'

We: 'So what do you want?'

'Bonbonek," said the ghost modestly.

So we went for it. We took the sweetest 'bonbonek'.

He comes here every night for his 'bonbonek' and we love him... <3

The most frightening experience of my life

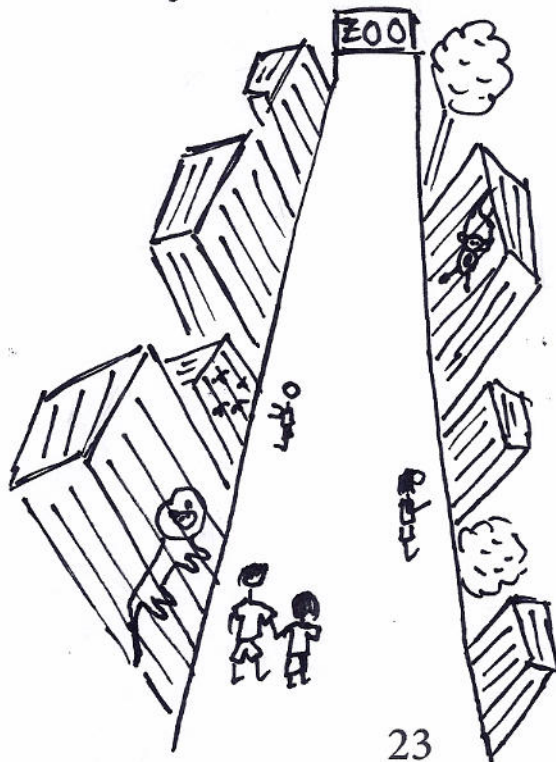

by Iveta Janáčková

Maybe the most frightening experience of my life happened in the zoo in Olomouc. When I was 6, I went there on a trip with my family. It was on 26th March. We got up early in the morning and went by car to Olomouc. The day looked like a good day, but it wasn't ☹.

When we arrived in Olomouc, we walked to the zoo. At first we went to the Parrots house because my sister loves birds! After that we went for lunch - it was delicious. We walked around all the animals in zoo and then we wanted to go home, but..... my "super" brother wanted to see a snake! I hate snakes and I am scared of them. But we had to because it was his wish. So we walked... When we arrived at the first snake, I started to shout and cry but my parents wanted me to walk on and stop crying. And I walked... suddenly we came near an empty cage...

We were scared because some snakes escaped... one of the snakes was very dangerous! Suddenly, my brother disappeared and... and... we turned back and we saw a snake. It ate him...

The memory of this day is so horrible for me!!!

Unforgettable journey

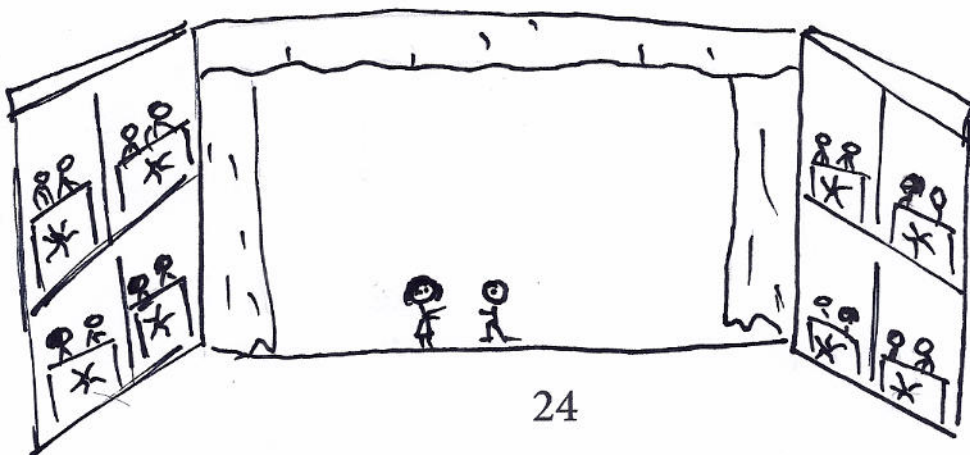

by Iveta Janáčková

I won't ever forget about my trip to Germany. It was very interesting, exciting and adventurous. It is a memory which nobody else has because lots of important things happened.

Sixty years ago my friend - Jane and I had a school holiday and we decided that we would go to Germany. It was a good idea but we didn't know what would happen... I had two suitcases and Jane had only one - it was quite normal because I had a lot of things which I couldn't fit into only ONE suitcase...

We went by train and the journey was four hours long. It was very, very long, but it was not important for us, we wanted to enjoy Germany. We wanted to go sightseeing, to the theatre and to the countryside.

After we arrived, we went to our hotel and we went for lunch - we were very hungry. After lunch, Jane wanted go to the theatre. I was very tired and I didn't want to, but Jane said it was her wish. As she was my best friend, I had to go. When we arrived at the theatre, we sat next to a man who looked like he wasn't normal. The actors started playing and we watched them. In the middle of the play the man stood up and said that Germany wasn't a normal state and that the war was useless, because the German people didn't win, that the war must start again... and he started it... he had a gun and he killed Jane... It's my unforgettable memory of my journey to Germany.

Stupid Adventure

by Adam Eliášek

A long time ago lived a man called Leonidas. He was famous because of his Persian army slaying. His most famous adventure was when he went to kill a Mafia boss.

It was an extremely difficult quest but he was not alone. He was with his friend, a very well known magician Albus Percival Wulfric Brian Brumbal. When they were on the way to the boss's house, they met some of his men, but the men did not see them because they used an invisible spell. When they came to the house, they killed all the staff. In the heart of the house they met the boss. It was an endless fight. At the start of the fight, the boss killed Leonidas with his gun, but Albus Percival Wulfric Brian Brumbal dodged the bullet and used a spell that is called expelliarmus (I hope everybody knows this spell). They were fighting like wrestlers, just with their fists and bodies. It was close but the boss started to cheat. He used a weapon that is called boxer and punched Albus Percival Wulfric Brian Brumbal into his face and killed him. But he died too, because of a bomb that Leonidas was wearing on his body.

This is the only story about their adventure so please do not break the copyright!

Switzerland

by Martin Lauda

I'm not very good at writing stories therefore I decided to write something about my favourite country in the Europe, about Switzerland.

I've always admired and liked everything from Switzerland. For me, Switzerland has always been a metaphor for beautiful nature, delicious cheese, sweet chocolate and a rich state. I don't like Switzerland just because there are lots of beautiful nature, wonderful architectonical monuments, kind and honest people,... but lots of products, known around all the world, are made in Switzerland. The Swiss have always been excellent at making chocolate. Very well-known Swiss chocolate factories are for example "Lindt" or "Milka". Highest-quality watches are made in Switzerland, for example "Rolex".

I've been to Switzerland just once but I'll never forget it. When I arrived there, everything fascinated me.

Grassland in Alps is the most beautiful place where I've ever been. When I arrived there in the spring, it was a romantic and calming place. I could feel the fizzing zephyr which was touching my face down in the mountain valleys and I could hear the strong wind which was blowing on the tops of the mountains. The most calming was when I sat on the grass in the morning and I was listening to sheep clinking their bells.

In the valleys between the mountains there are often small villages with very nice, beautiful and cosy pubs, where everybody is also very kind. What was interesting for me was that whenever I visited a pub, at least in the mountains, all the waitresses or waiters were wearing typical alpine costumes and thus looked like a part of the alpine mountains or alpine nature.

The most delicious and also national food is fondue, that I first savoured in one of the alpine pubs. Fondue is often served in a pot with some hot melted cheese and everybody who wants to savour it has to take a small fork, stick a piece of a baguette with it, dip it in the cheese and then eat it.

Apart from the nature, chocolate and cheese, I liked all the people there, because they were all very kind, polite and honest. I think these qualities should be a goal for all people.

Mr.Chung

by Michaylo Lendyel

Mr.Chung was a very old man from Peking, who moved to New York, USA. Here he became the boss of a mafia. After that he had control over China Town in New York. He had a fishing company and he sold drugs in the fish to other countries. But other mafia boss hated him because he hated drugs and send two of his best mafiosos to kill the Chinese boss. They went to the Chinese restaurant and killed everybody they met. And last they killed Mr.Chung. And this is the end of the story.

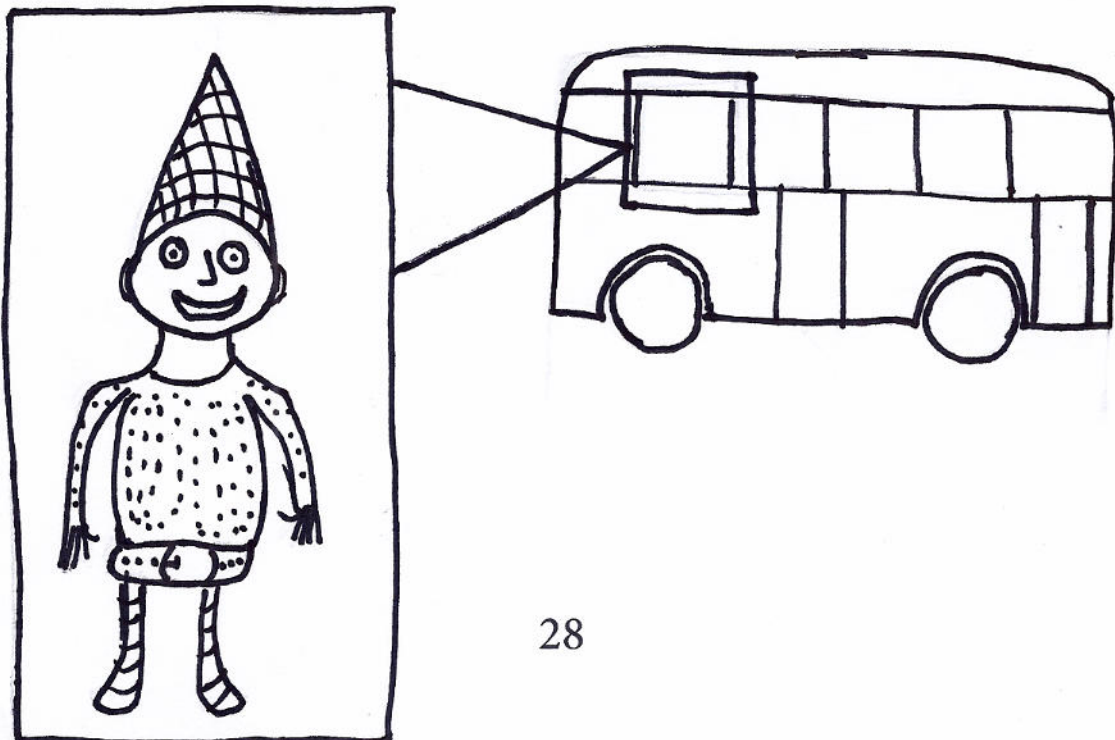

Trip to Liberec

by Katka Lipavská

I stepped out of the train and I saw my best friend from primary school. We hadn't seen each other for five years. I was so happy! We went to a sweet shop. We had so many things to talk about. She remembered this story:

In 2012 we went to an IQ park by bus for a school trip. The bus stopped in Mladá Boleslav. There was a snack bar and a hypermarket. Most of the boys disappeared into the snack bar. They ordered the food that they wanted. But when our teacher counted us, she found out that one of the boys, Lucas, was missing. This happened because Thomas was able to do magic. He had changed Lucas into a ceramic dwarf. The teacher didn't know about his ability. Thomas had taken Lucas into the bus and then he came out for counting. The pupils tried to find him but we weren't able to do it in two hours. So the teacher decided to continue the trip. When we were in Liberec, the magic stopped working, and suddenly Lucas turned up there. Our teacher was relieved. This trip was a very interesting one. After this we chatted for five hours and we set our next meeting.

A window impression

by Petra Hašková

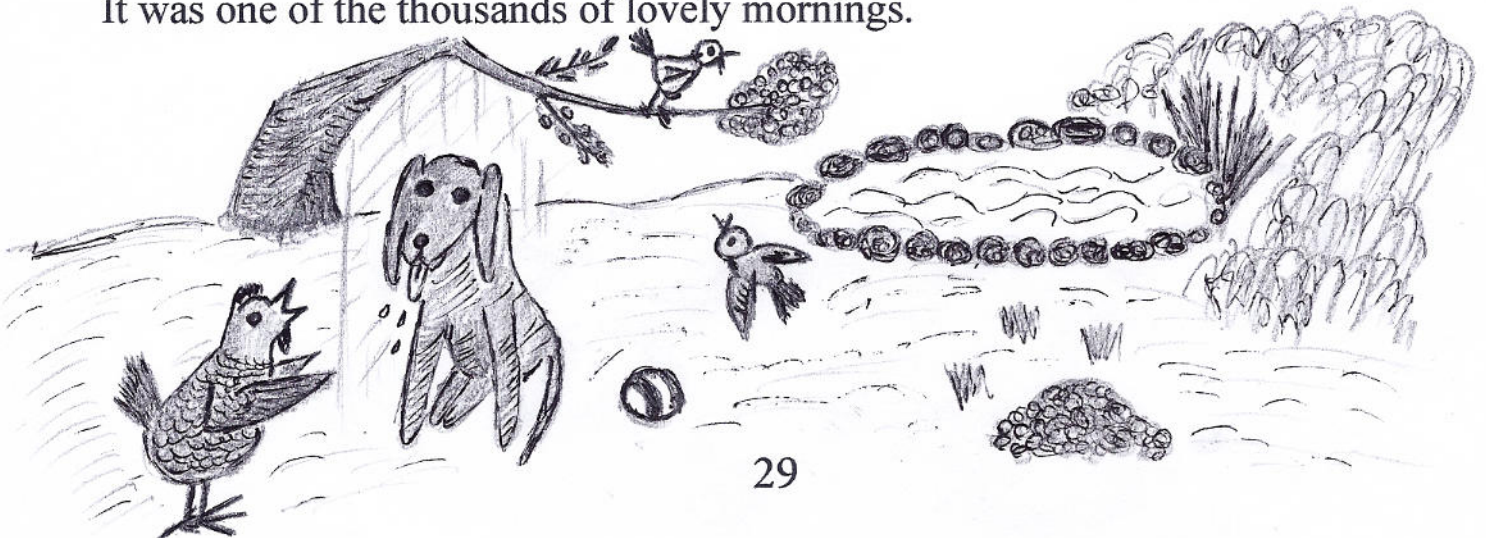

I looked out of the window and saw a bird which was having a bath in my pond - with a fish - which I dug up myself. The bird was tiny and brown. This kind of bird lives close to people, especially in the stable. When the bird was ready to fly out, another one was waiting for his place. But the first one was very slow and the next bird seemed to me a bit nervous. They started a battle, it was a great fight between them. A few feathers fell out. The battle was at its end, but it was not clear to me who the winner was. These two flew away.

There was nothing special happening for a while. The wind was blowing and the sun was shining. Some clouds were crossing the sky, so the intensity of the sun light was not constant. From time to time, I heard the voice of one of our hens telling everyone that she had laid an egg. The voice reminded me that I had to feed them wheat.

Suddenly, two Japanese pigeons sat on the fence, like a husband and his wife. They were looking for breakfast. Commonly, our hen house is the most favourite place for every bird in Černošice. Dad tried a lot of ways how to tell the dear little feathered creatures that just our own creatures are allowed to eat the wheat seeds. To his bad luck, bird Esperanto was not invented yet.

In a while there was another couple. It is a common bird of Europe. The male has a yellow beak, lovely eyes and a black feather coat and the female has a brown coat - blackbirds, you know. They were jumping on the lawn and looking for worms. They were successful and happily flew up to the apricot tree.

The hen's scream had drawn our dog's attention so she was now inspecting what was happening there. Everything was fine, so she went back. It was one of the thousands of lovely mornings.

THINK ABOUT IT WHAT YOU WANT

by Linda Skálová

‘You don’t have the right to come here again. You have to atone for your sins. Don’t you dare come back.’

I shut my mouth and showed them my muscular back.

‘Even if you’ll call me, I’m not going to return,’ I answered wilfully. My legs finally moved and I made the first steps to my life’s new chapter.

Four years have already passed since I left Purgatory and my desire to return hasn’t showed once. I had forgotten how to speak a long time ago, how to use my tongue or mouth. But I’m glad. I kept my promise and haven’t returned. I hope that they are regretting what they said.

Black. Everything turned black. I think this is my end. Finally, the bullet reached my chest. I knew it was coming, I have been waiting for it for a long time. While I was falling to the ground, my first and last tear crossed my cheek. Thank you, dad. I learned from you how to endure pain. I’m prepared to meet you. You are my idol, Lucifer.

Two poems

by Míša Doležalová

(1.)

Tic toc
 Ticking clock
 Falling block
 On the rock
 And the Spock
 Should be locked
 Cause I can't write a story.

(2.)

It's May
 and I can only pray
 that warm weather will stay.
 I would even pay
 to have at least one day when people can just lay and sky won't be grey.
 But there is one way...
 It is LA!
 There weather is okay.
 That is what I say.

Will I get an A?
